

SATURDAY 30, SUNDAY 31 AUGUST 2014

Special Tour Packages
(Only for IWSEC2014 Attendees)

(TOUR A)

4000¥

Shirakami Sanchi
Shirakami Sanchi is one of the world Heritage Sites

(Half Day)

The above rate is included entrance to Visitor Center, guide, accident insurance and free transportations

| Date                     | Time  | D/A    | Place                           | Summery                                                                                                                                                                          |
|--------------------------|-------|--------|---------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Aug.30 Sat.       | 12:00 | Depart | Hirosaki University             |                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                          | 12:40 | Arrive | Shirakami Sanchi Visitor Center | Visiting the Exhibition Hall which is museum where you can learn about the ecosystem of the vast wildness.                                                                       |
| ORAug.31 Sun | 13:00 |        | IMAX Theater                    | The magnificent of the Shirakami Sanchi can be viewed on a huge screen (300 m <sup>2</sup> ) in a 33-min film. It introduces the four seasons of the world Natural Heritage site |
|                          | 13:40 | Depart | Shirakami Sanchi Visitor Center |                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                          | 14:10 | Arrive | Aqua Green village Ammon        | A walking course through a beech forest (Buna trees) (approximately two hours) Enjoy a close-up view of the Shirakami forest and observe plants and wild birds. .                |
|                          | 16:10 | Depart | Aqua Green village Ammon        |                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                          | 17:00 | Arrive | Hirosaki University             |                                                                                                                                                                                  |

Deadline is August 24th , 2014.

To make a reservation, please send an e-mail with the following information to

info@shirakami-guide.com

Subject: IWSEC2014 (Tour)

Name:

Age:

Tour Type: (A) Half-day

(B) One-day

(c) One-day

Date: August , 2014

One of the world Heritage Sites (One Day)
 (The above rate is included entrance to Visitor Center, guide, lunch, Onsen (Hot Spring), accident insurance and free transportations)

| Date                         | Time  | D/A    | Place                           | Summary                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------------------------|-------|--------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Aug.30Sat. | 10:00 | Depart | Hirosaki University             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                              | 10:40 | Arrive | Shirakami Sanchi Visitor Center | Visiting the Exhibition Hall which is museum where you can learn about the ecosystem of the vast wildness.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| OR                    | 11:00 |        | IMAX Theater                    | The magnificent of the Shirakami Sanchi can be viewed on a huge screen (300 m <sup>2</sup> ) in a 33-min film. It introduces the four seasons of the world Natural Heritage site                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Aug.31Sun  | 11:40 | Depart | Shirakami Sanchi Visitor Center |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                              | 11:45 | Arrive | Shirakami House                 | 5-minute walk from the center and a stop at Shirakami House for a special lunch ( Matagi lunch)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                              | 12:30 | Depart | Shirakami House                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                              | 13:10 | Arrive | Aqua Green village Ammon        | Enjoy a close-up view of the Shirakami forest and observe plants and wild birds.A walking course through a beech forest (Buna trees) (approximately 3 hours and half) along the Anmon River. The dense beech forest has created a great wilderness playground for wild animals. You will enjoy the scenic beauty of the Anmon valley and spectacular views of the three Anmon waterfalls. |
|                              | 16:40 |        | Free time                       | The final tour of Anmon is to relax by taking a Hot Spring bath.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                              | 17:30 | Depart | Aqua Green village Ammon        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                              | 18:20 | Arrive | Hirosaki University BW Hotel    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

(TOUR C)

7000¥

Hakkoda Mountain, Oirase River and Towada Lake (One Day)
(The above rate is included guide, lunch, Onsen (Hot Spring), accident insurance and free transportations)

| Date                            | Time   | D/A                       | Place                                   | Summery                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------|--------|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Aug.30 Sat.ORAug.31 Sun | 9:30   | Depart                    | Hirosaki University                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                 | 10:30  | Arrive                    | Jogakura Bridge                         | This bridge is one of the longest bridge in Japan 122 meters high and 360 meters long. You will enjoy magnificent views of Mt. Hakkoda and Iwaki.                                                                                                                                         |
|                                 | 11:00  | Depart                    | Jogakura Bridge                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                 | 11:45  | Arrive                    | Oirase Gorge Tourist Information Center | Lunch (Buffet style meals)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                 | 13:00  | Depart                    | Oirase Gorge Tourist Information Center |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                 | 13:10  | Arrive                    | Oirase River                            | It's also called Oirase Gorge which means river stream surrounded by deep forest and has been considered as an area of a special scenic beauty in Japan. Waking beside the roaring Oirase river, you will find the most breathtakingly beautiful scenery in this area of blissful nature. |
|                                 | 14:40  | Depart                    | Oirase River                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                 | 15:00  | Arrive                    | Towada Lake and Yasumiya                | Towada lake was formed by the eruption of the Towada volcano. It is Japan's third largest and third deepest lake and is known for its crystal clear water. The maximum depth of the lake is 327 meters.                                                                                   |
|                                 | 16:00  | Depart                    | Towada Lake and Yasumiya                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                 | 16:45  | Arrive                    | Sukayu Onsen (Hot spring)               | The final stop of the Hakkoda tour is a relaxing bath in a natural Hot Spring. Sukayu Onsen is a Japanese style hot spring located in the wilderness foot of Mt. Hakkoda and has a 300 year history with special curative powers of relaxing.                                             |
| 17:45                           | Depart | Sukayu Onsen (Hot spring) |                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 18:45                           | Arrive | Hirosaki University       |                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

Deadline is August 24th, 2014.

To make a reservation, please send an e-mail with the following information to

info@shirakami-guide.com

Subject: IWSEC2014 (Tour)

Name:

Age:

Tour Type: (A) Half-day (B) One-day (c) One-day

Date: August , 2014