

How to Format and Submit Your Manuscript for SCIS 2022

SCIS 2022 Secretariat*

Kaitaro Genko*

Abstract: In this guide, we explain the method of preparing and submitting the manuscript for SCIS 2022 (online abstract, PDF abstract, and full paper). Text style short online abstracts and paper style long PDF abstracts are scheduled to be published through the website and a collection of full papers is scheduled to be distributed at the symposium as “abstracts of SCIS 2022”. Authors are required to prepare all of “Online abstract within 1,300 characters (in English) or within 500 characters (in Japanese)”, “PDF abstract within one page”, and “Full paper within eight pages”. The online abstract is registered by text input, while the PDF abstract and the full paper are submitted by uploading an electronic file. It is not necessary to submit the hard copy. The registered “Online abstract” and the submitted “PDF abstract” and “Full paper” are collected for the Web publishing and the abstracts, respectively. In order to avoid troubles, please prepare and submit your manuscript according to this guide.

Keywords: SCIS 2022, manuscript style, file format.

1 Online Abstract

Text style short online abstract of your manuscript will be published on Web that will be distributed at the symposium. Please input the text of the online abstract via the online submission system. It must be within 1,300 characters (in English) or within 500 characters (in Japanese).

After the participation application on the Web, you can access “My page”. After registering for a new presentation, you can input the online abstract under “Manuscript (online abstract)”.

2 PDF Abstract and Full Paper

Paper style long PDF abstracts will be published on Web, and full papers will be distributed in SCIS 2022. Please prepare your PDF abstract not exceeding 1 page and full paper not exceeding 8 pages.

Since the submitted manuscript will be published as it is, please prepare the manuscript according to the following. Note that this document itself follows the recommended style for the full paper abstracts.

2.1 Limitations of Document Size and Page Count

The paper size is set to be A4. The PDF abstract must not be more than one page, and the full paper must not be more than eight pages.

In the PDF abstract, please include the title, authors, affiliation, address, keywords, and abstract. If necessary, you can add diagrams and references.

In the full paper, please include the title, authors, affiliation, address, abstract, keywords, main text, diagrams, references, and appendices, etc.

2.2 Layout of Manuscript

Please arrange the margins as follows: top margin 17 mm, bottom margin 20 mm, and the right and left margins 18 mm, respectively. Except for these margins, please put the context in an area of height 260 mm and width 174 mm.

Moreover, please put the label of SCIS of height 16 mm and width 57 mm in the upper right corner of the first page. For the content and the style, please follow the label of SCIS in this document. It is not necessary to put the label after the first page. The paper number is also unnecessary.

Please put page numbers in the paper.

2.3 Composition of the 1st Page

The necessary items and languages for the first page of the text are summarized in Table 1.

The “Abstract” in the full paper need not be the same as the online abstract (but they can be the same).

2.4 Style File for L^AT_EX

For those who use L^AT_EX to prepare the manuscript, the L^AT_EX style file and the template file were prepared. Please acquire them from <http://www.iwsec.org/scis/2022/call.html>.

There are both English and Japanese versions.

3 About Submitting the Manuscript

3.1 Presentation Application

For the presentation application, please register via the web page, under “Registration” in <http://www.iwsec.org/scis/2022/registration.html>. Then proceed to the registration of new presentation after login into “My page”.

3.2 Manuscript Registration and Submission

Please submit the online abstract, the PDF abstract, and the full paper online. It is not necessary to submit the hard copy.

Please login to “My page”, in order to register and submit the manuscript through the submission page.

Deadline for submission is 17:00, January 4, 2022 (JST). After the manuscript is submitted, it can be updated for any number of times until the deadline. The abstracts are based on the last version of any information submitted. Early submission is recommended because congestion in the server is expected in the last minutes of the deadline. Please be informed that if authors fail to submit enough information necessary for organizing the symposium program by the deadline, then the submission may be excluded from the program.

3.3 File Format

The online abstract must be in text form and the PDF abstract and the full paper must be in PDF form. Moreover, the size of the PDF file must not exceed 1.5 MB. Please take extra care if the file contains many photographs.

Please also note the following section “About Fonts That Can Be Used”.

3.4 About Fonts That Can Be Used

The PDF files of the submitted manuscripts are collected to the abstracts “as it is”. Therefore, in order for it to be displayed correctly in different platforms, the following guideline is recommended.

Latin font It is safer to embed all the fonts used.

Japanese font It is also recommended to embed the Japanese font in the PDF file as long as the file size is not over the limit. Otherwise, please confirm that the file can be correctly displayed and printed with various software when the font is not embedded. If you use the Windows environment, please check that it also works with other environments such as Mac and UNIX, etc.

Please refer to the manual of your PDF conversion software about font embedding.
